

Spooks, Goblins, Witches To Parade Tuesday Night

McMaster Park Recreation hall at 174th street and Yukon avenue will become a den filled with black cats, leering jack o'lanterns and spooks, beginning at 6:30 on the evening of Oct. 31.

That's the night the witches ride, you know, and all the North Torrance Elementary School children and pre-school age children have been invited to attend and participate in the costume parade which will begin at 7:30. Prizes will be awarded for the most unusual, the prettiest and the most gruesome costumes.

The event is being sponsored by the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association. There will be games and souvenirs for all.

Owen Bertrand, chairman of the recreation committee, has asked that parents of the children attending call for the little goblins at the hall at 9:30.

Class Learns by Doing In Citrus Packinghouse

Working in a packinghouse near the campus of Cal Poly at San Dimas, Richard Preston, of 21528 Moneta avenue, is getting the benefit of a "learning by doing" method of education. Preston is one of 14 members of a citrus class studying packinghouse management. The students are all excused from their classes for the week they spend in the citrus industry.
